

Huckleberry Finn as a knight

Huck's Personallity

Huck is a brave young man who fights for what he believes in and helps others. Knights lived by a code of chivalry or to protect the weak. Huck does this by protecting and fighting for Jim, a slave and his friend.

Background

Huck doesn't have much of an education or a good family like most knights. Huck is clever in his own ways, he does have experience with weapons and can use his surroundings according to the situation.

Lifestyle

A knight and Huck have many characteristics in common. The physical appearances don't match up to what a knight is but, personality wise he is the perfect knight. Huck is intelligent, brave, and has honor to fight for what is right.

other characteristics

Huck saves his friend Jim from being sold after he is betrayed by two men. Huck knows the risks and still fights to save his friend in the end. He uses his knowledge to protect those who cannot protect themselves.

Huck's appearance

Huck's appearance shows he doesn't have money and a high social status like knights usually did, but for what he lacks in appearance he makes up in courage.